

TENOCAM

(Tenoxicam)

Anti-inflammatory – Analgesic

Composition:

TENOCAM Capsules:

- Each capsule contains: Tenoxicam (Eur. Ph.)
20 mg.

TENOCAM Suppositories:

- Each suppository contains: Tenoxicam (Eur.
Ph.) 20 mg.

TENOCAM Ampoules:

- Each Ampoule (1 ml) contains: Tenoxicam
(Eur. Ph.) 20 mg.

Properties:

TENOCAM, is a nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug (NSAID) that exhibits anti-inflammatory, analgesic and antipyretic activities. The mechanism of its action is related to prostaglandin synthetase inhibition.

Indications & Usage:

Tenocam, is indicated for pain & inflammation in rheumatic disease & acute gout and other musculoskeletal disorders.

Contra-Indications:

TENOCAM, is contraindicated in patients with known hypersensitivity to Tenoxicam, Aspirin or other NSAIDs.

Use in Pregnancy & Lactation:

Safety to use Tenoxicam during pregnancy or lactation has not yet been established, avoid use of Tenoxicam during pregnancy or and lactation.

Dosage & Administration:

N.B. children.

Adults : In rheumatic disease : 20 mg daily.

Acute Musculoskeletal disorders : 20 mg daily for 7 days.

Packing:

- TENOCAM Capsules: Strip x 10 capsules.
- TENOCAM Suppositories: Strip x 5 suppositories.
- TENOCAM Ampoules: Boxes of 3 Ampoules x 1 ml.